INTRODUCTORY VERSES

Well you jiggled & joked, wore your silliest clothes, but there wasn't a smile on your face.
You howled & you hawed, as you tried to guffaw, but it seems all attempts were a waste.

No, you can't keep a laugh in your pocket
Or a giggle card up your sleeve
But sooner or later it comes to you
Just you wait and see.

Well I noticed your mouth, had its corners turned south, like you put on your smile upside down.
You'd look happy instead, if you stood on your head, but there's no way you could get around.

What to do with this doldrum dilemma
This worrisome web you've weaved
Sooner or later it comes to you
When you just believe:

VERSE / REFRAIN 1:
Happiness is like the wind
Impossible to hold
But what you give comes back again
to brighten up your soul.
So, when it seems your laughter
Is somewhere out of sight - remember
Happiness is like the wind.

VERSE / REFRAIN 2:
Happiness is like the wind
Impossible to see
But you can tell it's 'round a bout inside of you & me
when hearts are filled with laughter and everything is right - I know that Happiness is like the wind.

BRIDGE:

How Cowboy Ernie Finds His Yodel / Short Format Family Musical

If you give - happiness, you'll get - happiness
It's not in a place or thing
If you share - happiness, somewhere - happiness
Will come to you again

Happiness is like the wind
Impossible to hold
But what you give comes back again
to brighten up your soul.
So, when it seems your laughter
Is somewhere out of sight - remember
Happiness is like the wind.

REFRAIN:

Happiness is like
Happiness is like
Happiness is like - the wind.
