

The Rock of America

by Nancy Roché & Tom Frazee

We stand on sacred ground
With grateful hearts
As stars and stripes fly above us
One race called human, equal and free
We the people hold the future of all that can be.

CHORUS:

We are the Rock of America
We are the flags very fiber, its fabric for all.
Under stripes and stars we stand “the rock”
We stand . . .
“The Rock of America”.

This land so bountiful
Bears freedoms fruit
Who’s truth we’ll give our lives for
With hearts united, sea to shining sea
We the people, hold the promise, of liberty

CHORUS

We’re the Bill of Rights in action and the US Constitution
The content of our character will serve as living proof.
For the spirit of the law is the heart of we the people
The essence of America is ours to own in truth . . .

CHORUS
